THE NEW NIGHT DRAWER

ISSUE 134

JANUARY 18, 2025

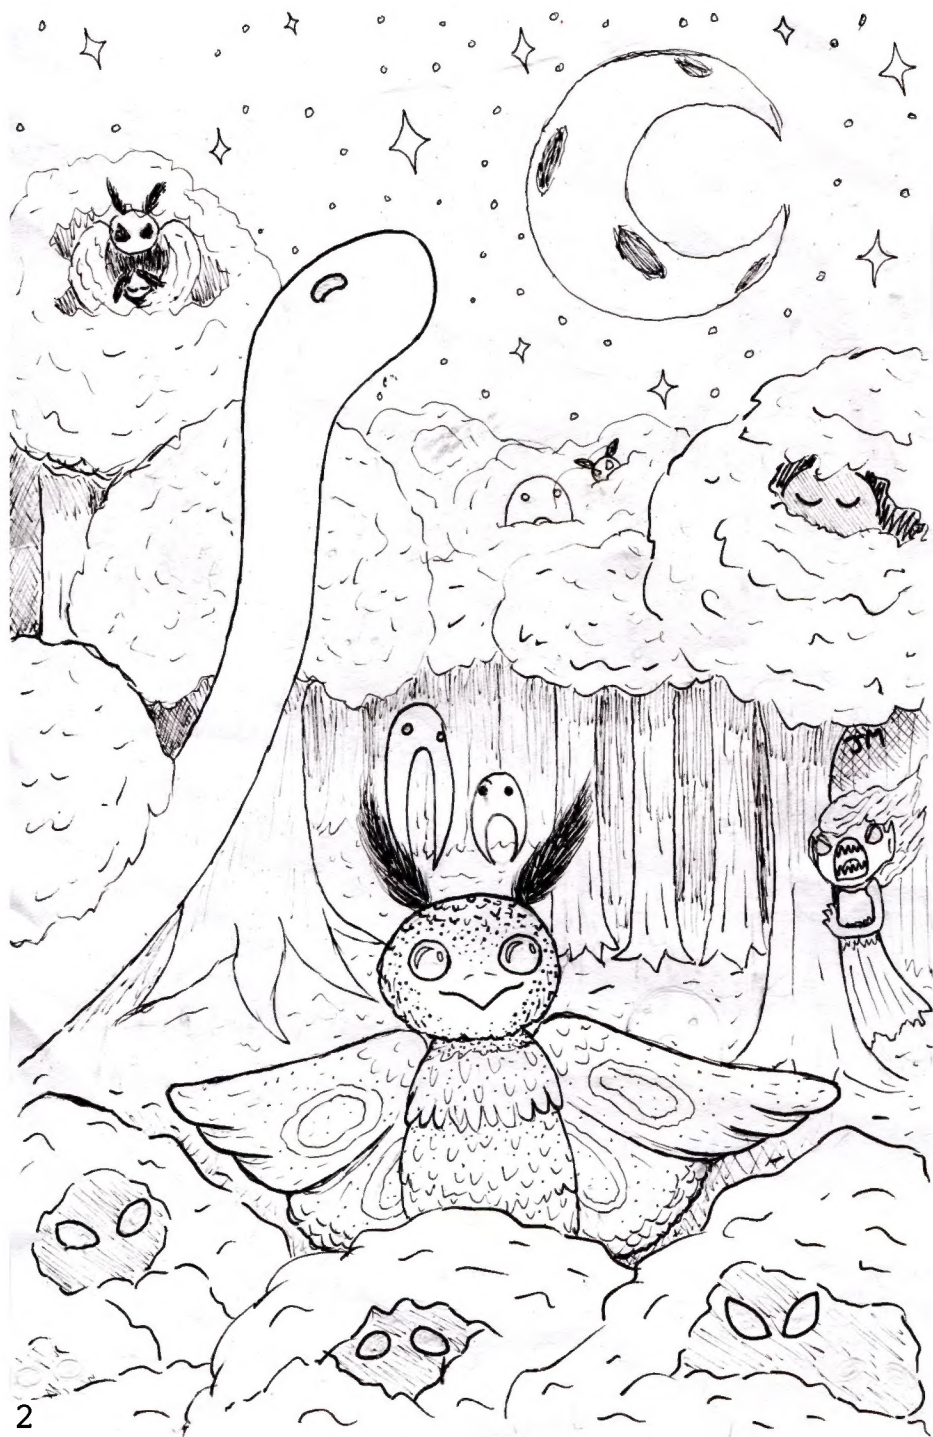

CREATURE OF THE NIGHT

The night is half of the time we get. There is the day, and then the night. There are creatures who come out in the day time and creatures who do the opposite. This week we are putting the spotlight on the creatures of the night!

If you would rather sleep in, or maybe not even go out until the sun has gone down, this zine is for you! The first thing most people think of is vampires, but we have a lot creatures of the night . Frankenstien, the wolf man, slender man, the blair witch . Of course there are others. But the real creatures of the night are the little rodents and vermin that we often forget. It's the raccoon going through your trash, it's the rat eating the leftovers off the counter, it's the bat who actually eats a lot of bugs in the night!

Sometimes we all feel like a creature of the night... Maybe we stay up too late working on some drawaing, or maybe it is sunday night and we go down to Le Voyeur to draw something with the rest of the drawers. Either way the night is some -thing that we all experience! (although some of us might be sleeping then) There are creatures awake and living thir lives at hese times! Scientists say that they are nocturnal, but I say they are creatures of the night.

This week we picked the prompt of the zine thesame way we do every week. Everyone who arrived at Le Voyeur before 7pm was invited to pick a prompt out of the drawer or write a prompt of their own. Whatever they choose is added to the pile. At 7pm exactly someone randomly chooses one prompt from the pile and that's what we all draw. This week it was Creature of the Night but I made it plural for the cover because it was a lot of singular creatures. Turn the page to find out what kind of strange night creatures are in the pages.

CREECHING in the NIGHT

But perhaps what also attracts us humans to owls is admiration, particularly that they have the skill to fly at night.

This bird is feathered perfection; grace and beauty with talons.

Just as a poem is the best words in the best order,

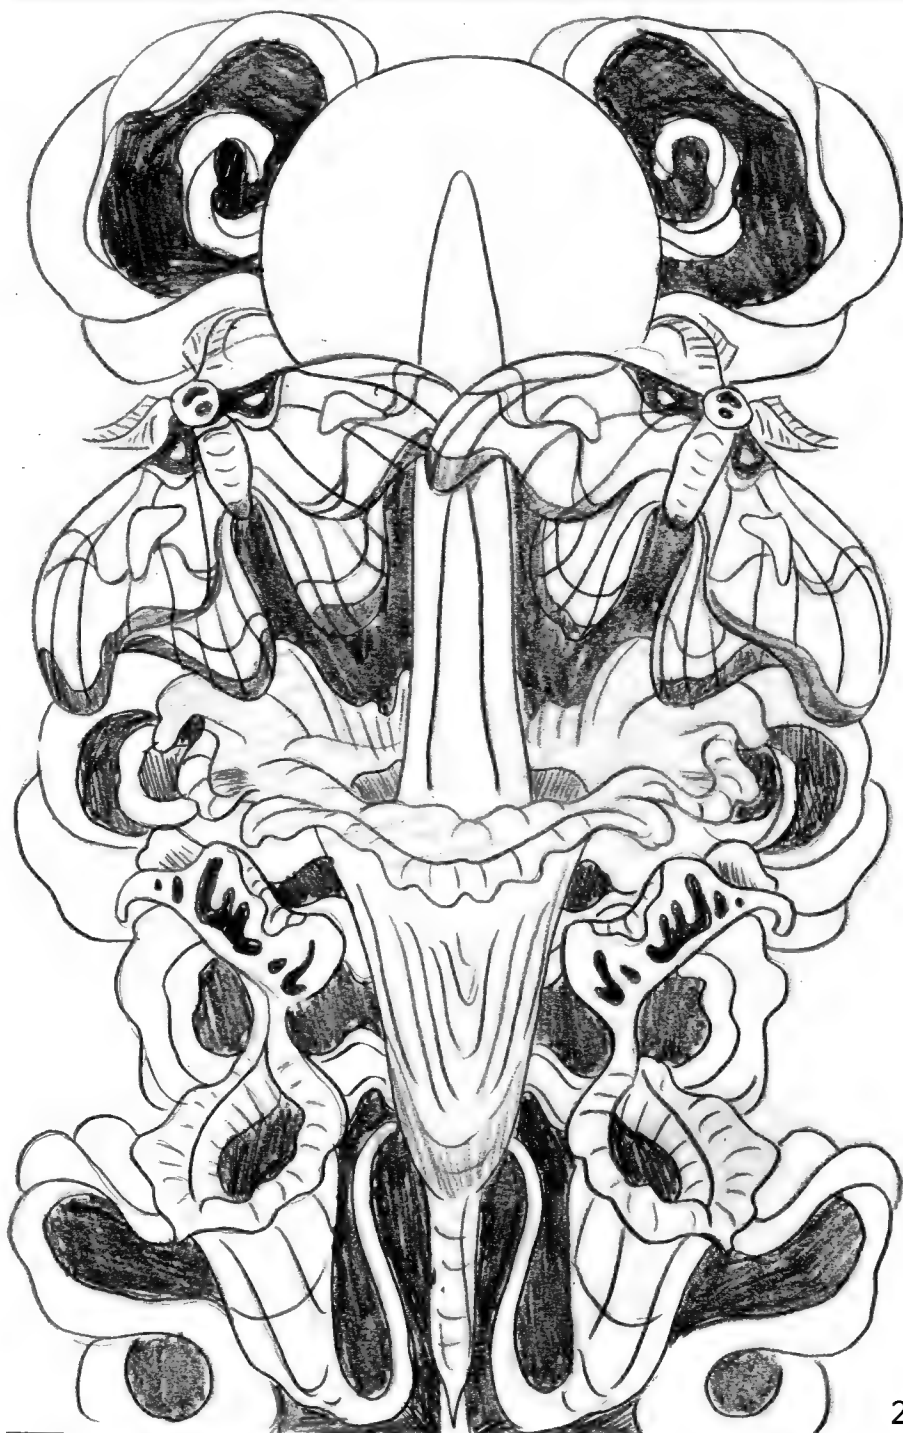

this bird must be the best night-hunter in the best kit.

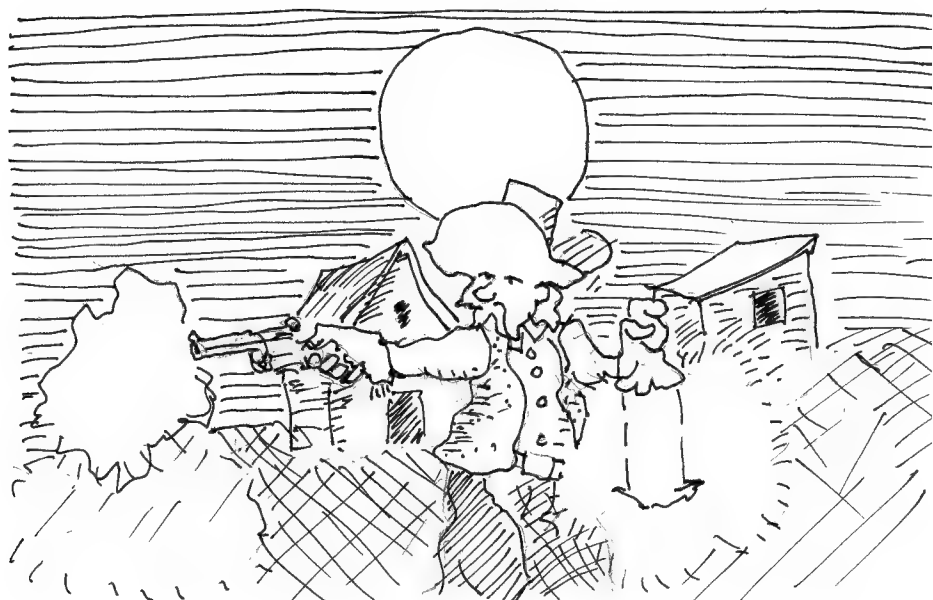

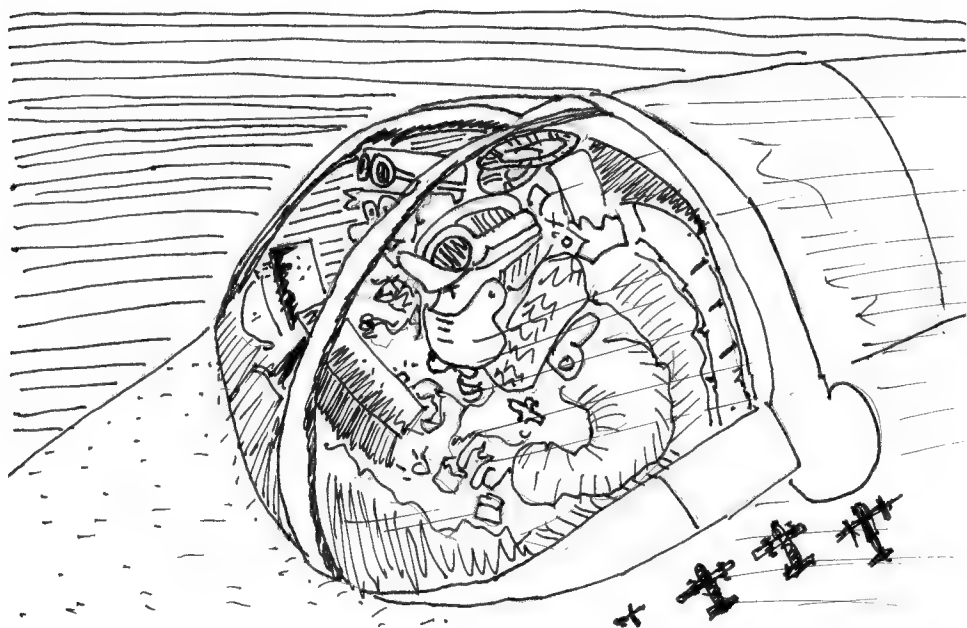

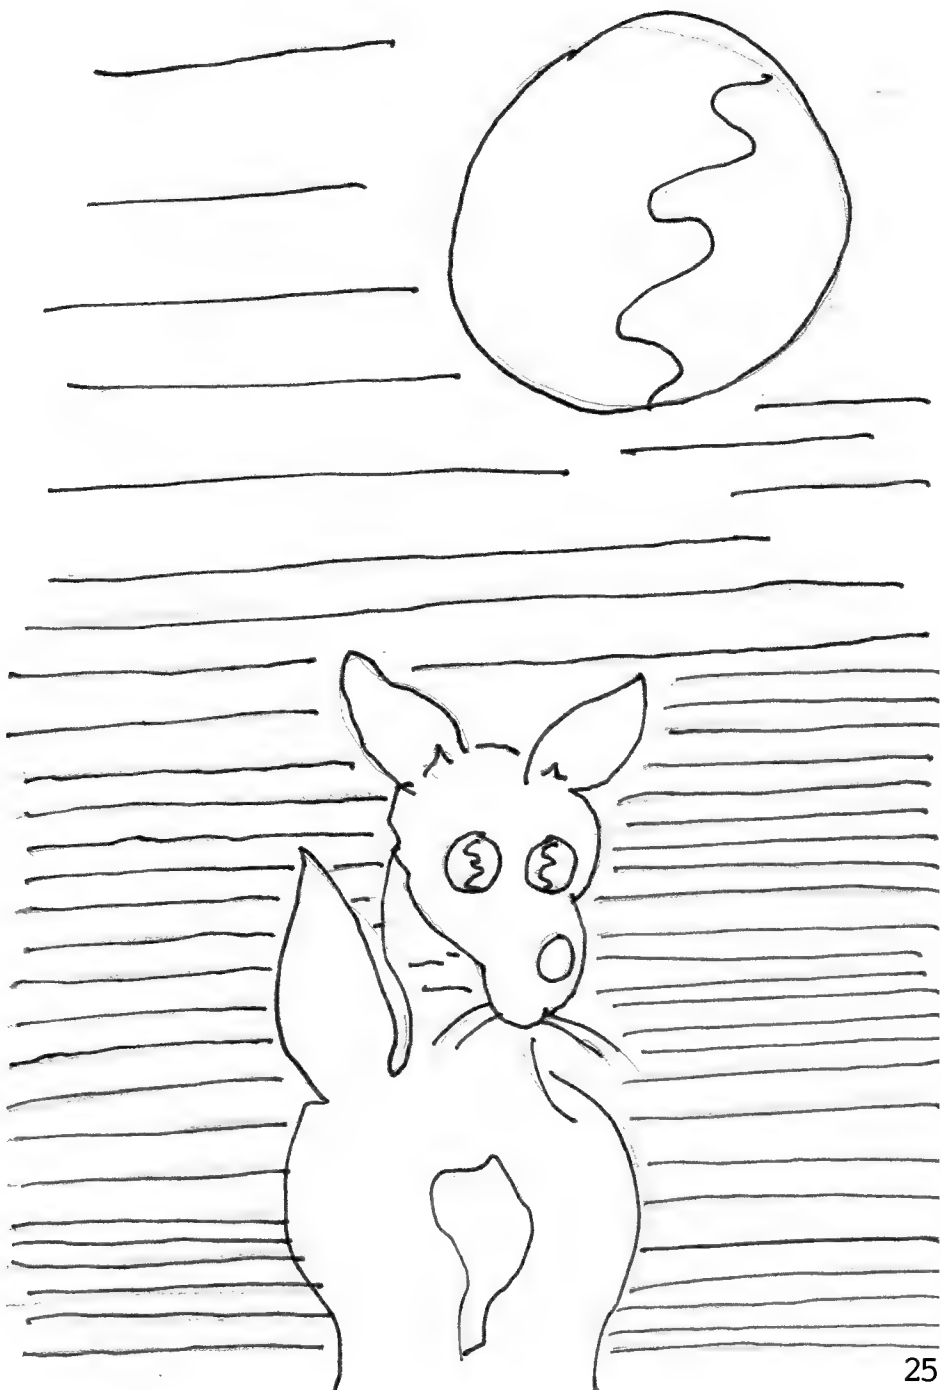

When the daily soundtrack
of birdsong died down,
over time we noticed the owl's voice
in the dark and felt
our suspicious minds
have wondered whether it puzzled and unsettled.
also has any supernatural qualities:

Hidden in its cloak was there the capacity for evil, for instance?

The Night Drawer is a drawing night and collaborative art zine made every week on Sundays at Le Voyeur in Olympia, WA. At 7pm a new prompt is chosen from the drawer and everyone is invited to make a page inspired by that prompt. No one knows what the prompt will be beforehand, but anyone can add new prompts into the drawer at any time. All the pages are collected and made into this zine. The Night Drawer is open to the public and welcomes artists of all styles and skill levels.
